

Hi, my name is Sarah. I _____ (coming / come) from England, and my question is, is _____ (trash / trashed) recycled in your _____ (country / county)?

So the answer to _____ (there / that) is yes. We definitely do recycle _____ (on / in) England. It is starting to _____ (thankfully / thanking) get a lot more _____ (seriously / serious) and, you know, people are _____ (real / really) starting to recycle more, _____ (special / especially) since now, I think that you can be _____ (fined / fanned) quite a lot of money if you don't recycle _____ (properly / property) in the U.K. As of now, I think we have three _____ (difference / different) types of trash that _____ (mainly / main) get recycled: plastic, glass, and _____ (cupboard / cardboard), I believe, are the three different _____ (thing / things) that we recycle right _____ (new / now).

We also have, like, three _____ (different / differently) trash cans, which are different _____ (calories / colors) to help you remember which _____ (tape / type) of trash goes into which type of trash _____ (can / canning). And yeah, then the garbage _____ (guy / buy) will come and collect it, take it _____ (away / from), and they are _____ (separated / seperation), which makes it easier to _____ (record / recycle) and to better help the _____ (environment / environmental).

So yeah, we _____ (definite / definitely) do recycle in England.
